THE HOST COUNTRY

Peru

Peru still remains one of the Latin America countries with the Lowest Inflation Rate

Peru is located on the western coast of South America and borders the following countries:

North:	Ecuador and Colombia
East:	Brazil
Southeast:	Bolivia
South:	Chile
West:	Pacific Ocean

With a total area of 1,285,215.60 km², Peru is the third largest country in South America after Brazil and Argentina.

Peru also has rich deposits of Copper, Silver, Gold, Lead, Zinc, Iron, Natural Gas, Oil, and Urea.

Due to climate variations across its regions, as well as its natural and cultural resources, it is internationally classified as a megadiverse country.

Peru has a population of 34.1 million people, and its economy is estimated to grow by more than 3.2% for the year 2026.

According to the International Monetary Fund (IMF), Peru is considered a rising star forming part of the new wave of leading emerging markets. Today, it possesses solid fundamentals, a prudent policy framework, and a macro-economic focus, all of which allow it to enjoy sustained growth and low vulnerability.
